

Hireyu Niugini Limited is a labour hire business on a mission. The sole purpose of our entity is to operate in a socially responsible and ethical way, for the benefit of the Niugini people.

We are a company with a difference, our sole mission is to provide training opportunities, a high level of up-skilling and career development for the people of Papua New Guinea.

We achieve this by investing company profits, first and foremost back into our employees, forging lasting working relationships, built on loyalty, trust and our commitment to deliver local employment opportunities with a difference.

Our highly skilled tradesmen receive ongoing mentoring and support to achieve their career goals. As a result, our clients receive the highest quality skilled labour, with the capability to support the largest and most complex projects in oil & gas, process minerals and construction.

By nurturing our employees, harnessing their skills and developing them to be the best that they can be, we offer the tools to ensure nothing but success for all stakeholders. As an employee of Hireyu Niugini Limited, you commit to upholding the highest ethical standards, ongoing training, and becoming an industry advocate for your trade!

Our promise to our employees is simple, we reward and recognise your efforts for representing us in the best possible light. We do this by providing you with all the tools to succeed, including but not limited to; Above industry award salary, above award NAS fund, training opportunities, up-skilling, rewards and recognition.

“An ethically, and socially responsible labour hire provider, with our employees at the forefront of what we do.”
